

Black Bear Duo

Traditional Scottish Dance Music in Queensland, Australia

Spirits soar and feet fly when Iain McKenzie and Emma Nixon join forces to play fabulous Scottish music for balls and country dances, ceilidhs and concerts. They bring together a deep love of Scottish music and years of experience playing for dances. Their combined passion for performing traditional and contemporary Scottish music creates their signature exciting and individual style.

The band will be coming over from Queensland, Australia to play for the Lower Hutt Annual Dance this year on 7th September at Knox Church, High Street, Lower Hutt. Don't miss this opportunity to dance to the wonderful music of the Black Bear Duo.
